
I am the true vine, and my Father is the vine grower. He takes away every branch in me that does not bear fruit, and everyone that does he prunes so that it bears more fruit.

to walk as ONE™

A few months ago, a co-worker mentioned that it was her sister's birthday, but they had not spoken in several years. There was no animosity or problem, just a lack of initiative to pick up the phone and call. So, after a little coaxing, our friend picked up the phone and surprised her sister for her birthday. That call led to a wonderful reunion and the sisters have grown much closer.

It's easy to lose touch with people. A few distractions, a busy schedule, and family events makes time fly and we end up promising to call tomorrow, or write this week, or stop by sometime soon for a visit. It can be fun and worthwhile to pick up our old address book and contact the people who mean so much to us. A call or a card can mean so much and can help rekindle important friendships and bonds.

The same thing can happen with God. We get so busy with life that reading the Bible, spending more time praying, or going to Mass or Reconciliation gets put on the back burner. "I'll do it for Lent" doesn't do much to keep us in touch, especially if you make that promise in July. Dig through your incomplete spiritual resolutions and finish them. Get in touch with God today. Who knows, you might see Him tomorrow!

James Gaffney © Pilot Bulletins

I am the vine, you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me and I in them will bear much fruit, because without me you can do nothing.

News & Updates

"The Sign of the Cross"

Calling on God's name, as Bert Ghezzi puts it, supernaturalizes our natural prayer. In signing ourselves with this loving gesture and words, we have made a decision to remain one with God and accept His will as ours. In signing ourselves and calling on God, we know our Lord will answer our prayers, because we are learning how to pray for what He holds foremost in His heart.

We hope that after these weeks of talking about the "Sign of the Cross" that you will no longer make the sign casually, but with more reverence and deliberately as an act of faith and helps to align your will with His. If you would like to get more in depth information you can purchase "The Sign of the Cross 'Recovering the Power of the Ancient Prayer' " by Bert Ghezzi.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen.

Please don't forget to print out your Scholarships applications available on our site KoC12710.org, please don't wait until the last minute, you know how time flies. Deadline is May 29th.

We would like to invite the men of our parishes to join us in our COR Initiative. COR is the Latin word for Heart. This initiative is to strengthen the faith of our Catholic men. You will be reminded of things you may have forgotten and learn something you never knew about our Catholic Religion. We meet once a month. At St. Mark's we meet the first Sunday of the month from 9:15-10:15am; the next meeting is May 5th.

At St.Brigid/Assumption we meet the second Saturday of the month from 8-9:00am at the rectory/parish offices at St. Brigid. Due to scheduling, this meeting will be May 18th.

So please, come and see. Coffee and pastry will be served, along with prayer, faith formation and fellowship. We hope you will consider joining us.

May God's blessings and graces fill your hearts,

Saints Philip and James the Less, Apostles

FIRST CENTURY
FEAST DAY: MAY 3

Philip and James the Less, son of Alphaeus, are listed among the Twelve Apostles commissioned by Jesus. Philip brought Nathaniel to Christ, had a part in feeding the 5,000, and at the Last Supper, when asked to be shown the Father, was told by Christ: "Have I been with you for so long a time and you still do not know me, Philip?" He may have evangelized in Turkey. Not much is known about James, but "the less" may refer to his height. One tradition puts him in Syria, while another has him martyred in the same Jerusalem persecution as James the Righteous.
